

Abstract

The present study deals with an important subject that constitutes the Grammatical explanation adamant Al- faraa .

Al – faraa was the name who established the kofian school , at his time the contemplation of explanation wasn't apart , so Al – faraa didn't demonstrate all kinds of explanation but he reference some of its by construction the verses of the Holy Quran which was the first authority for him in his studies , and the second was the poetry .

The purpose from this search was to know how Al – faraa dealing with the Grammatical explanation with The other opinion in the Arabic grammar from his contemporary scientists and the after .

The study falls in to three chapters , a preface , an introduction and conclusion , the chapters were divided according to Arab port of speech including the kinds of explanation that study exposure it .

One of the most important results of the study is that Al – faraa was one of the scientist who made the first rules of the Arabic grammar by hearing from the Arabian tribes .